Statement of Purposes for Collection of Personal Data

1. Your withdrawal from the Centralised Organ Donation Register (CODR) is a voluntary action. All collected data in the organ donation withdrawal form will be classified as personal and treated with strict confidentiality for exclusive access by authorised personnel for performing relevant data management.
2. Upon receiving your withdrawal form, Department of Health (DH) will contact you by telephone to verify your personal particulars. The organ donation withdrawal form will be destroyed if DH fails to establish a contact with you for verification of information, or after your personal data has been deleted from the CODR.
